

Questions

1. The 14th Asian Games, which were held in Busan, Korea in 2002, attracted 9,919 participants from 44 countries. The athletes competed in 38 different sports and won 427 gold medals. The Vietnamese participants took part in this event with great enthusiasm. Their efforts were much appreciated when they won 2 gold medals in bodybuilding and billiards, and 2 others in women's karatedo. It is hoped that in the near future, Vietnam will become a host country and receive more medals in a variety of sports events.

Question 1: Where were the 14th Asian Games held?

- A. The 14th Asian Games were held from 44 countries.
 - B. The 14th Asian Games were held in 2002.
 - C. The 14th Asian Games were held in India.
 - D. The 14th Asian Games were held in Busan, Korea.
-
2. The 14th Asian Games, which were held in Busan, Korea in 2002, attracted 9,919 participants from 44 countries. The athletes competed in 38 different sports and won 427 gold medals. The Vietnamese participants took part in this event with great enthusiasm. Their efforts were much appreciated when they won 2 gold medals in bodybuilding and billiards, and 2 others in women's karatedo. It is hoped that in the near future, Vietnam will become a host country and receive more medals in a variety of sports events.

Question 2: How many participants took part in the 14th Asian Games?

- A. 9,919 participants took part in the 14th Asian Games.
- B. 9, 999 participants took part in the 14th Asian Games.
- C. 427 participants took part in the 14th Asian Games.
- D. 919 participants took part in the 14th Asian Games.

3. The 14th Asian Games, which were held in Busan, Korea in 2002, attracted 9,919 participants from 44 countries. The athletes competed in 38 different sports and won 427 gold medals. The Vietnamese participants took part in this event with great enthusiasm. Their efforts were much appreciated when they won 2 gold medals in bodybuilding and billiards, and 2 others in women's karatedo. It is hoped that in the near future, Vietnam will become a host country and receive more medals in a variety of sports events.

Question 3: In which sports events did the Vietnamese athletes win gold medals at the Busan Games?

- A. They won the gold medals in bodybuilding, and women's karatedo at the Games in Busan, Korea.
 - B. They won the gold medals in bodybuilding, billiards, and women's karatedo at the Games in Busan, Korea.
 - C. They won the gold medals in bodybuilding, and billiards at the Games in Busan, Korea.
 - D. They won the gold medals in billiards and women's karatedo at the Games in Busan, Korea.
4. The 14th Asian Games, which were held in Busan, Korea in 2002, attracted 9,919 participants from 44 countries. The athletes competed in 38 different sports and won 427 gold medals. The Vietnamese participants took part in this event with great enthusiasm. Their efforts were much appreciated when they won 2 gold medals in bodybuilding and billiards, and 2 others in women's karatedo. It is hoped that in the near future, Vietnam will become a host country and receive more medals in a variety of sports events.

Question 4: How many countries took part in the 14th Asian Games?

- A. Vietnam will become a host country and receive more medals in a variety of sports events.
- B. 44 countries took part in the 14th Asian Games.
- C. 38 different sports took part in the 14th Asian Games.

- D. 40 countries took part in the 14th Asian Games.
5. The 14th Asian Games, which were held in Busan, Korea in 2002, attracted 9,919 participants from 44 countries. The athletes competed in 38 different sports and won 427 gold medals. The Vietnamese participants took part in this event with great enthusiasm. Their efforts were much appreciated when they won 2 gold medals in bodybuilding and billiards, and 2 others in women's karatedo. It is hoped that in the near future, Vietnam will become a host country and receive more medals in a variety of sports events.

Question 5: How did the Vietnamese participants take part in this event?

- A. The Vietnamese participants take part in this event with great enthusiasm.
- B. The Vietnamese participants taken part in this event with great enthusiasm.
- C. The Vietnamese participants took part in this event with great enthusiasm.
- D. The Vietnamese participants takes part in this event with great enthusiasm.