

GMAT Vocabulary Flash Cards @ englishpdf.com and englishteststore.com File 525

preoccupy

(v) To fill the mind of a person to the exclusion of other subjects.

preordain

(v) To foreordain.

preparation

(n) An act or proceeding designed to bring about some event.

preparatory

(adj) Having to do with what is preliminary.

preponderant

(adj) Prevalent.

preponderate

(v) To exceed in influence or power.

prepossession

(n) A preconceived liking.

preposterous

(adj) Utterly ridiculous or absurd.
