

SAT Vocabulary Flash Cards @ englishpdf.com and englishteststore.com File 436

pentameter

(n) In prosody, a line of verse containing five units or feet.

pentathlon

(n) The contest of five associated exercises in the great games and the same contestants.

penultimate

(adj) A syllable or member of a series that is last but one.

penurious

(adj) Excessively sparing in the use of money.

penury

(n) Indigence.

perambulate

(v) To walk about.

perceive

(v) To have knowledge of, or receive impressions concerning, through the medium of the body senses.

perceptible

(adj) Cognizable.
