

SAT Vocabulary Flash Cards @ englishpdf.com and englishteststore.com File 468

preoccupation

(n) The state of having the mind, attention, or inclination preoccupied.

-----

-----

preoccupy

(v) To fill the mind of a person to the exclusion of other subjects.

-----

-----

preordain

(v) To foreordain.

-----

-----

preparation

(n) An act or proceeding designed to bring about some event.

-----

-----

preparatory

(adj) Having to do with what is preliminary.

-----

-----

preponderant

(adj) Prevalent.

-----

-----

preponderate

(v) To exceed in influence or power.

-----

-----

prepossession

(n) A preconceived liking.

-----

-----