

English Vocabulary Flash Cards @ englishpdf.com and englishteststore.com File 381

monograph

(n) A treatise discussing a single subject or branch of a subject.

monolith

(n) Any structure or sculpture in stone formed of a single piece.

monologue

(n) A story or drama told or performed by one person.

monomania

(n) The unreasonable pursuit of one idea.

monopoly

(n) The control of a thing, as a commodity, to enable a person to raise its price.

monosyllable

(n) A word of one syllable.

monotone

(n) The sameness or monotony of utterance.

monotonous

(adj) Unchanging and tedious.
