

English Vocabulary Flash Cards @ englishpdf.com and englishteststore.com File 437

perception

(n) Knowledge through the senses of the existence and properties of matter or the external world.

percipience

(n) The act of perceiving.

percipient

(n) One who or that which perceives.

percolate

(v) To filter.

percolator

(n) A filter.

percussion

(n) The sharp striking of one body against another.

peremptory

(adj) Precluding question or appeal.

perennial

(adj) Continuing though the year or through many years.
