

English Vocabulary Flash Cards @ englishpdf.com and englishteststore.com File 499

recognizance

(n) An acknowledgment entered into before a court with condition to do some particular act.

recognize

(v) To recall the identity of (a person or thing).

recoil

(v) To start back as in dismay, loathing, or dread.

recollect

(v) To recall the knowledge of.

reconcilable

(adj) Capable of being adjusted or harmonized.

reconnoiter

(v) To make a preliminary examination of for military, surveying, or geological purposes.

reconsider

(v) To review with care, especially with a view to a reversal of previous action.

reconstruct

(v) To rebuild.
