

English Vocabulary Flash Cards @ englishpdf.com and englishteststore.com File 520

retrench

(v) To cut down or reduce in extent or quantity.

retrieve

(v) To recover something by searching.

retroactive

(adj) Operative on, affecting, or having reference to past events, transactions, responsibilities.

retrograde

(v) To cause to deteriorate or to move backward.

retrogression

(n) A going or moving backward or in a reverse direction.

retrospect

(n) A view or contemplation of something past.

retrospective

(adj) Looking back on the past.

reunite

(v) To unite or join again, as after separation.
