

English Vocabulary Flash Cards @ englishpdf.com and englishteststore.com File 570

sycophant

(n) A servile flatterer, especially of those in authority or influence.

syllabic

(adj) Consisting of that which is uttered in a single vocal impulse.

syllabication

(n) Division of words into that which is uttered in a single vocal impulse.

syllable

(n) That which is uttered in a single vocal impulse.

syllabus

(n) Outline of a subject, course, lecture, or treatise.

sylyph

(n) A slender, graceful young woman or girl.

symmetrical

(adj) Well-balanced.

symmetry

(n) Relative proportion and harmony.
