

Questions

1. When Martin started learning English, he was really shy. In class he never said a word in English because he was afraid of making mistakes. And he became more and more quiet in English classes. Anyway, his English teacher was a very kind and friendly woman. She encouraged him to practice English with a partner or in a group. She said it might help him more confident. She often praised him when he said something good. He was really frightened at first talking to his classmates in English. But his teacher said the only way to learn speaking English is by speaking it. And he did it. Now he feels confident enough to speak English in front of the class.

Choice

Match

What was his English teacher like?

She often praised him when he said something good.

Why did Minh never say a word in English class?

She said the only way to learn speaking English is by speaking it.

What did the teacher say to him?

She was very kind and friendly

How does Minh feel now?

Now he feels confident enough to speak English in front of the class.

What did his English teacher do when he said something good?

Because he was afraid of making mistakes