

Questions

1. The sun (1) _____ large amounts of (2) _____ everyday. This energy can be (3) _____ into electricity. Many countries use solar energy for their daily life. Solar panels on the roofs of houses can (4) _____ enough energy to heat or cool an entire house. Solar energy is not only plentiful and infinite (5) _____ clean and safe.

Question 1:

- A. releases
 - B. to release
 - C. released
 - D. to released
2. The sun (1) _____ large amounts of (2) _____ everyday. This energy can be (3) _____ into electricity. Many countries use solar energy for their daily life. Solar panels on the roofs of houses can (4) _____ enough energy to heat or cool an entire house. Solar energy is not only plentiful and infinite (5) _____ clean and safe.

Question 2:

- A. energy
 - B. energetic
 - C. energetically
 - D. energize
3. The sun (1) _____ large amounts of (2) _____ everyday. This energy can be (3) _____ into electricity. Many countries use solar energy for their daily life. Solar panels on the roofs of houses can (4) _____ enough energy to heat or cool an entire house. Solar energy is not only plentiful and infinite (5) _____ clean and safe.

Question 3:

- A. change
 - B. changed
 - C. to change
 - D. changing
4. The sun (1) _____ large amounts of (2) _____ everyday. This energy can be (3) _____ into electricity. Many countries use solar energy for their daily life. Solar panels on the roofs of houses can (4) _____ enough energy to heat or cool an entire house. Solar energy is not only plentiful and infinite (5) _____ clean and safe.

Question 4:

- A. create
 - B. creating
 - C. creative
 - D. to create
5. The sun (1) _____ large amounts of (2) _____ everyday. This energy can be (3) _____ into electricity. Many countries use solar energy for their daily life. Solar panels on the roofs of houses can (4) _____ enough energy to heat or cool an entire house. Solar energy is not only plentiful and infinite (5) _____ clean and safe.

Question 5:

- A. nor
- B. or
- C. but also

D. but