

Questions

1. In the U.S, men and women choose their spouses. They do this by dating. When they decide on a spouse, they get engaged. They do not need their parents' consent. The man usually gives the woman an engagement ring. Before a wedding, the bride's women friends and relatives usually have a party for her. It is called a shower. At the shower, everyone gives the bride a present for her future home. The groom's men friends give him a party. It is called a bachelor party. The purpose of this party is to give to the groom one last good time as a single man. Sometimes young people pay for their own wedding. This is especially true if they have been working for a while. In other cases, the family of the bride pays for most of the wedding and the reception afterward.

Question 01: In the U.S, men and women _____.

- A. don't have to pay attention to the law when they get married.
 - B. must have their parents' permission if they are supposed to get married.
 - C. must win their friends' agreement if they are supposed to get married.
 - D. could have their own choice in the matter of marriage.
2. In the U.S, men and women choose their spouses. They do this by dating. When they decide on a spouse, they get engaged. They do not need their parents' consent. The man usually gives the woman an engagement ring. Before a wedding, the bride's women friends and relatives usually have a party for her. It is called a shower. At the shower, everyone gives the bride a present for her future home. The groom's men friends give him a party. It is called a bachelor party. The purpose of this party is to give to the groom one last good time as a single man. Sometimes young people pay for their own wedding. This is especially true if they have been working for a while. In other cases, the family of the bride pays for most of the wedding and the reception afterward.

Question 02: At the bachelor party, the groom _____.

- A. could have one last good time as a bachelor.
 - B. must promise to behave properly at the wedding.
 - C. must prove him to be a good future husband.
 - D. could have one last chance of freedom.
3. In the U.S, men and women choose their spouses. They do this by dating. When they decide on a spouse, they get engaged. They do not need their parents' consent. The man usually gives the woman an engagement ring. Before a wedding, the bride's women friends and relatives usually have a party for her. It is called a shower. At the shower, everyone gives the bride a present for her future home. The groom's men friends give him a party. It is called a bachelor party. The purpose of this party is to give to the groom one last good time as a single man. Sometimes young people pay for their own wedding. This is especially true if they have been working for a while. In other cases, the family of the bride pays for most of the wedding and the reception afterward.

Question 03: According to the passage, young people _____.

- A. can ask for parental help to pay for their wedding.
 - B. can borrow from their friends to pay for the wedding.
 - C. at times pay for their wedding.
 - D. completely rely on their family for their wedding.
4. In the U.S, men and women choose their spouses. They do this by dating. When they decide on a spouse, they get engaged. They do not need their parents' consent. The man usually gives the woman an engagement ring. Before a wedding, the bride's women friends and relatives usually have a party for her. It is called a shower. At the shower, everyone gives the bride a present for her future home. The groom's men friends give him a party. It is called a bachelor party. The purpose of this party is to give to the groom one last good time as a single man. Sometimes young people pay for their own wedding. This is especially true if they have been working for a while. In other cases, the family of the bride pays for most of the wedding and the reception afterward.

Question 04: The word consent in line 2 is closest in meaning to _____.

- A. order
- B. agreement
- C. request
- D. remarks

5. In the U.S, men and women choose their spouses. They do this by dating. When they decide on a spouse, they get engaged. They do not need their parents' consent. The man usually gives the woman an engagement ring. Before a wedding, the bride's women friends and relatives usually have a party for her. It is called a shower. At the shower, everyone gives the bride a present for her future home. The groom's men friends give him a party. It is called a bachelor party. The purpose of this party is to give to the groom one last good time as a single man. Sometimes young people pay for their own wedding. This is especially true if they have been working for a while. In other cases, the family of the bride pays for most of the wedding and the reception afterward.

Question 05: The word present in line 4 is closest in meaning to _____.

- A. gift
- B. kiss
- C. ring
- D. chance