

Questions

1. Shortly after her marriage, Liz and her husband went to Tanzania, (1) _____ he had a job as a teacher. Liz hoped that she would be able (2) _____ after a while. However, on the first day, she was asked to teach at the local school (3) _____ her valuable university experience. She found the job difficult because she had not taught (4) _____, and the children were unused to discipline. When she looked back, Liz thought that she did not teach particularly well. She did not know (5) _____ about the subjects she was teaching.

Question 1: _____.

- A. when
 - B. what
 - C. where
 - D. that
2. Shortly after her marriage, Liz and her husband went to Tanzania, (1) _____ he had a job as a teacher. Liz hoped that she would be able (2) _____ after a while. However, on the first day, she was asked to teach at the local school (3) _____ her valuable university experience. She found the job difficult because she had not taught (4) _____, and the children were unused to discipline. When she looked back, Liz thought that she did not teach particularly well. She did not know (5) _____ about the subjects she was teaching.

Question 2: _____.

- A. teach
- B. to teach

C. taught

D. teaching

3. Shortly after her marriage, Liz and her husband went to Tanzania, (1) _____ he had a job as a teacher. Liz hoped that she would be able (2) _____ after a while. However, on the first day, she was asked to teach at the local school (3) _____ her valuable university experience. She found the job difficult because she had not taught (4) _____, and the children were unused to discipline. When she looked back, Liz thought that she did not teach particularly well. She did not know (5) _____ about the subjects she was teaching.

Question 3: _____.

A. because of

B. because

C. though

D. if

4. Shortly after her marriage, Liz and her husband went to Tanzania, (1) _____ he had a job as a teacher. Liz hoped that she would be able (2) _____ after a while. However, on the first day, she was asked to teach at the local school (3) _____ her valuable university experience. She found the job difficult because she had not taught (4) _____, and the children were unused to discipline. When she looked back, Liz thought that she did not teach particularly well. She did not know (5) _____ about the subjects she was teaching.

Question 4: _____.

A. after

B. soon

C. above

D. before

5. Shortly after her marriage, Liz and her husband went to Tanzania, (1) _____ he had a job as a teacher. Liz hoped that she would be able (2) _____ after a while. However, on the first day, she was asked to teach at the local school (3) _____ her valuable university experience. She found the job difficult because she had not taught (4) _____, and the children were unused to discipline. When she looked back, Liz thought that she did not teach particularly well. She did not know (5) _____ about the subjects she was teaching.

Question 5: _____.

A. many

B. much

C. few

D. some